An Index of the Government of National Unity Items

Available on WeThePeopleSA digital archive

| | Title/Description | Date | Hyperlinked Reference Code | Additional Information |
|----|---|---------------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| 1. | Interim Government: Towards a Viable Option | 31 October 1991 | ZA CHT AS-10-33- 3 | Here are some early thoughts on the Government of National Unity. |
| 2. | ANC Negotiations Bulletin Number 21 Special Edition | 19 February 1993 | ZA CHT AS-10-4- 10 | The African National Congress wanted all its members to know why they wanted a Government of National Unity and why they didn't support alternatives. You can read their views in the ANC Negotiations Bulletin. |
| 3. | A Government of National Unity under the Transitional Constitution: Discussion Paper | 16 March 1993 | ZA CHT AS-10-31- 5 | |

| 4. | Dikwankwetla – Constitution Making Process | 28 April 1993 | ZA CHT MPNP-3- 2-5-7 | MPF stands for Multi-Party Forum, as it was known before it was given the name Multi-Party Negotiating Process. The first few paragraphs on page 1 contain a demand for drawing up a Government of National Unity by Dikwankwetla. |
|----|--|---------------------|---|---|
| 5. | IFP and the Government of KwaZulu Submission | 13 May 1993 | ZA CHT MPNP-3- 2-5-11 | Not everyone likes Governments of National Unity. Here the IFP rejects it as an idea. |
| 6. | Final Report of the Negotiating Council of Technical Committee Dealing with the Repeal or Amendment of Discriminatory Legislation Impeding Free Political Activity. | 18 May 1993 | ZA CHT AS-10-9-4 | This document from page 19 covers the need to create a Government of National Unity to ensure free political action and hold people accountable for discrimination while the Constitution was being written. |
| 7. | The South African Government and African National Congress – Bilateral discussion on forming a Government of National Unity | 28 October 1993 | ZA CHT MPNP-3- 2-5-216 ZA CHT MPNP-7- 2-16 | South African Government, made of the National Party meets with the African National Congress. Together they write a first draft of what a Government of National Unity would be. |
| 8. | Address by Nelson Mandela to the Plenary Session of the Multi-Party Negotiations Process Held at the World Trade Centre | 17 November 1993 | ZA CHT CA-1-23- 10 | Nelson Mandela, before becoming president, talks about what a Government of National Unity would mean for all South Africans. |
| 9. | Promotion of National Unity and Reconciliation Bill | 1993 | ZA CHT AS-12-84- 2 | This document deals with the Formation of Truth and Reconciliation mechanism to create National Unity. |

| 10. | Making the New South Africa Ungovernable and Post-Apartheid Democracy Unworkable | 1993 | ZA CHT AS-10-34- 5 | Making a place of unity and trust can be daunting. See this item from the Albie Sachs Collection where the African National Congress raises some of their concerns. |
|-----|---|----------------------|--|---|
| 11. | Note on Decision Making - Sufficient Consensus | 1993 | ZA CHT CA-5-4-4- 31 | "Sufficient Consensus" became an important principle in negotiating contentious issues. This is an early note on what it means. |
| 12. | Theme Committee 4 of the Constitutional Assembly, Report 23: Other social and economic rights | 1993 | ZA CHT MPNP-3- 2-3-10 | See the table on contentious and non- contentious issues. Theme Committees created these tables to help clarify what everyone wanted, including political parties, organisations, and citizens. |
| 13. | Transcript: Debate on Constitutional Issues in the Negotiating Council of the Multi-Party Negotiating Process | 14 September 1994 | ZA CHT CA-8-3-1 | How does a Government of National Unity form a Cabinet? Here you can read debates about what it means to different political parties. |
| 14. | Interviews, Extra parliamentarian 1 tape side A | 16 January 1995 | ZA CHT CA-5-2-1- 10-1 | If you listen carefully, during the first 5 minutes, you can hear some frank conversation about representative government. |
| 15. | Transcript | 02 February 1995 | ZA CHT CA-3-2-26 | The PAC could not make a meeting of the Constitutional Assembly so other parties in the Government of National Unity raised that the PAC had been misrepresented in discussion documents. Take a read on pages 5 to 10. |

| 16. | Constitutional Assembly, Constitutional | 09-Oct-95 | | This is an example of a debate and |
|-----|---|-----------|------------------|---|
| | Committee Sub Committee Documentation | | | working towards resolving contentious |
| | on Land Rights | | ZA CHT AS-10-33- | issues. Here you can read the opinions |
| | | | 3 | of various political parties and how they |
| | | | | resolved Constitution-Making issues |
| | | | | with the help of technical advisors. |